

HALL, MERTON — Merton was born July 14, 1895 in Jonesport. He was the son of Oscar B. Hall and Arletta. Merton married Marion Smith and they had 2 sons, Lee and Frank. Today Merton has 5 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Merton served a "crick" in the U.S. Coast Guard. He also ran the mail deliveries from Columbia Falls to Jonesport. He worked in Sawyers Chevrolet Garage and at Bert Frost's Boat Yard building "RumRunners". Merton ran his own garage for 20 years, working on cars and boat engines.

Today Merton enjoys receiving company, watching television, "Jimmy Swaggert" is his favorite, listening to his large record collection and building model boats and yachts.

Merton lives by himself in his home in Jonesport.
