

IRENE ELIZA HARMON

Born July 19, 1903 English Course. Social Editor of Messenger Board (4); School Play (4); Junior Reading (3); Honor Essay; Valedictory, at Graduation.

Did you ever neglect a lesson for a good time, Irene? Not that you aren't right there when it comes to fun, but you have preserved a large share of that conscientiousness which most of us have lost since our freshman year. Every day we've heard it, "I haven't a thing prepared, I don't know anything about this lesson." Of course we don't fall for this line after Irene's four years of perfect recitations and strings of A's. But my! What wouldn't you get, Peg, if you were ever "prepared" as you define it.

