

KELLEY, ALICE — Alice was born June 25, 1896 on Beals, the daughter of Hanna Alley and Edward Merchant. On December 25, 1922 Alice married Howard Kelley. They had 2 children. Frank Kelley, her son, lives in Machiasport. Alice has 2 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Her favorite past-times are sewing in earlier years, watching television, especially Sunday programs, listening to the CB, and attending Church. Alice is a member of the Sawyer Memorial Congregational Church of Jonesport.

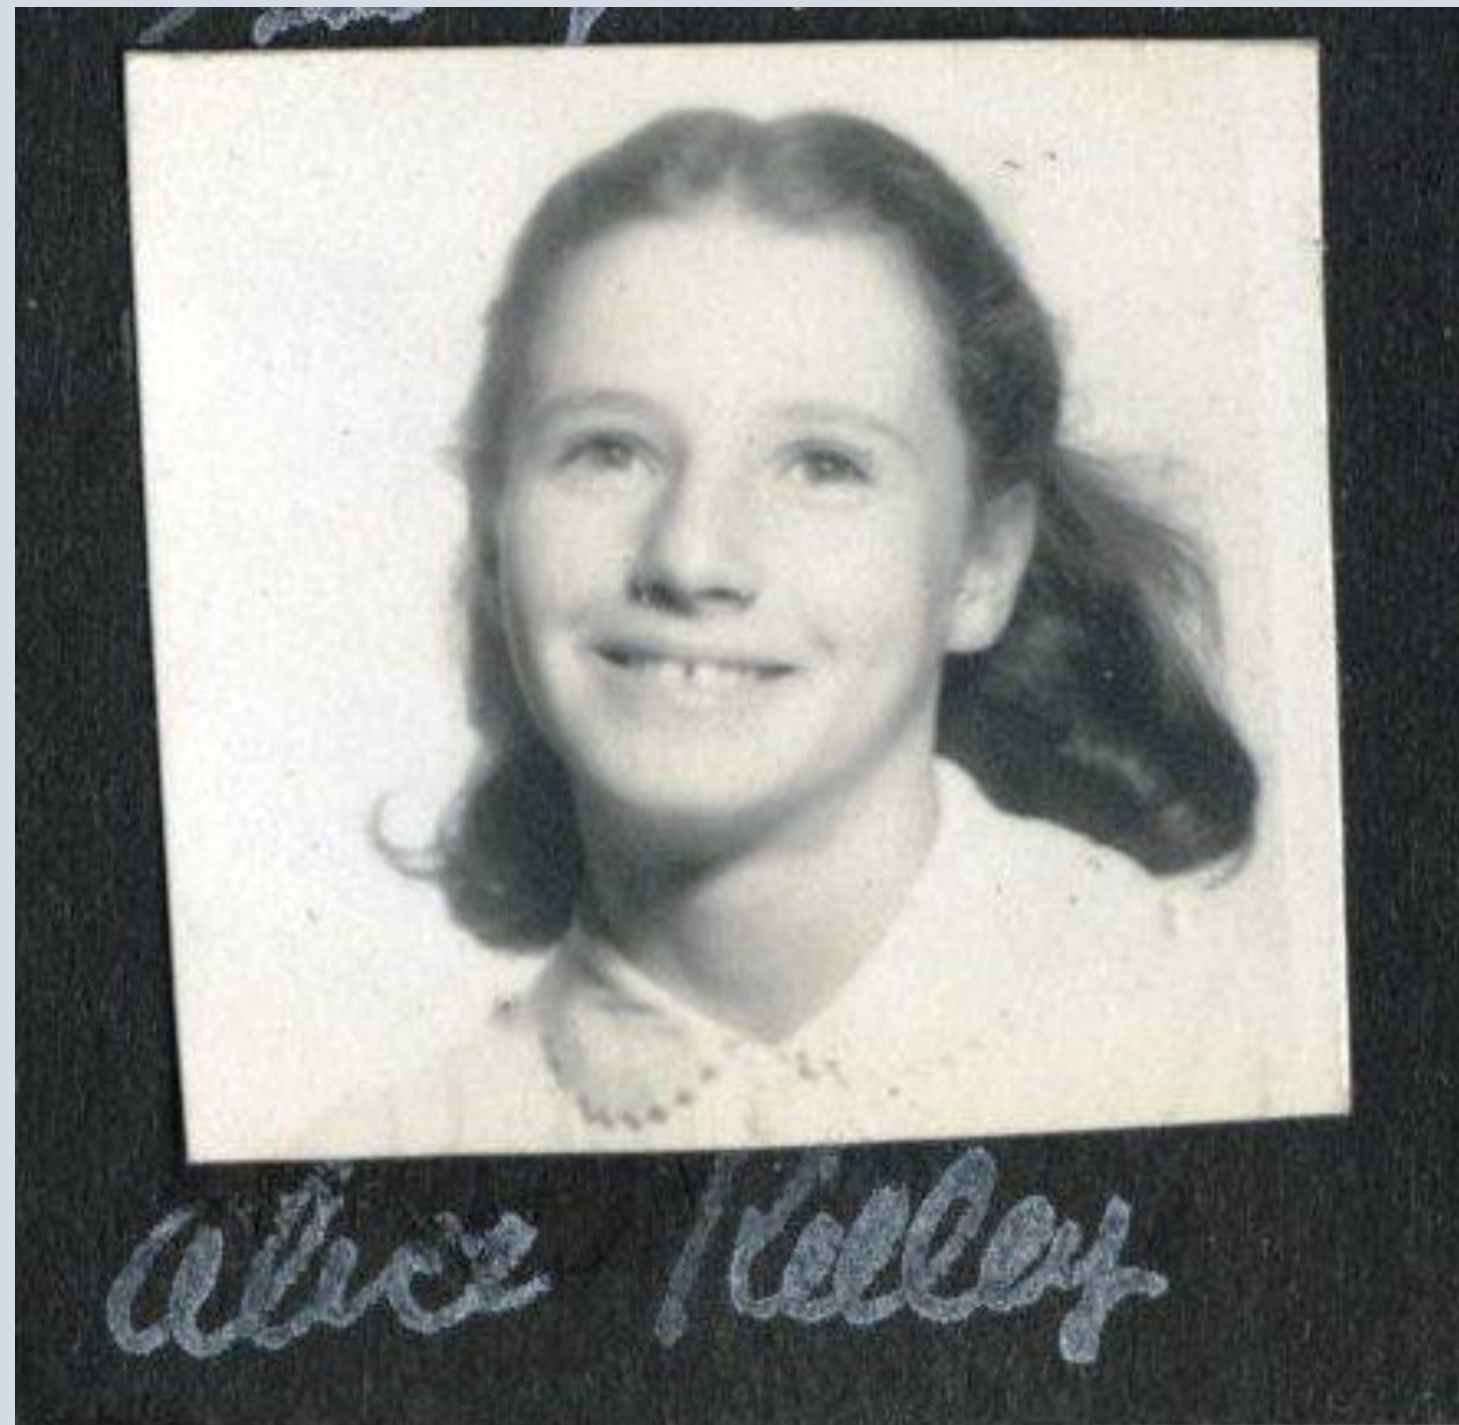

One of Alice's fondest memories was a trip with her husband, Howard and their 1 year old son Frank to Florida. They left in the Fall, 1925 in a new Chevrolet Car. She can remember it was a tenting trip. They had wooden boxes and bins, full of camping gear, packed on the running boards of the car. They tented the whole time gone. They came back in the Spring. When they left town there were no electric lights, and when they returned the lights were hooked up.

Alice resides in her home in Jonesport.

From the collection of Donnie Woodward

Alice Kelley

From the album of Bertha (Worcester) Look