

Best friends Ira Brooks Norton (standing) and Osmond Charles Faulkingham, in Lynn Massachusetts, April 1905. They were attending Burdett Business College, which later moved from Lynn to Boston. According to the back of the photo, their boarding house was at 63 Newhall Street, Lynn. That house still stands.

Ossie Faulkingham, my grandfather, lived diagonally across the street from the Norton home in Jonesport. Ossie was born 4 July 1885, just weeks before Ira came along on 13 September 1885.

From the collection of Sharon Josephson

Ira Norton and George Wilson (brother-in-law to Ira)

From the collection of Jeannie (Norton) Pepper