

Annie Eliza (Marney) Wallace 1868-1939

Joseph A. Wallace 1869-1938

From the Estelle (Church) Chipman collection

1939 JONESPORT Aug 30

MRS. ANNE E. WALLACE

Mrs. Anne Eliza Wallace, 71, widow of Joseph Wallace, died at her home Wednesday of last week after a long period of failing health. She was born in St. John, N. B., daughter of Joshua and Eliza Marney, and had been a resident of this town for more than 50 years. She was a member of the Reformed Baptist church, which she attended regularly until ill health kept her at home. A devoted, loving mother and helpful friend, she will be greatly missed.

Funeral services were at the Reformed Baptist church Saturday afternoon by Rev. Ernest R. Bradley. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and a profusion of beautiful flowers, silent tributes of the esteem in which she was held.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Julie Henderson of Boston, Mrs. Louisa Munford of Ottawa, Canada; a brother, Charles Marney; four daughters, Mrs. Eva Dobbins, Mrs. Ida French, Mrs. Vina Faulkingham, all of Jonesport, and Mrs. Cecil Walker of Island Falls; three sons, Edgar Wallace of Mt. Desert Rock light, Kenneth Wallace of Portland, and William Wallace of Jonesport.

There's a simple word called Mother
That means the world to me;
Though she's gone from us forever,
She will ne'er forgotten be.
She went along life's highway
In her cheery, loving way;
She did her best, by word and deed,
To brighten someone's day.
And though we cannot see her
We know that she's not gone,
For those whose lives are lessons
Do not die—Though they pass on.

Died 8-31-1939

Died
2-20-1938

JOSEPH A. WALLACE

WEST JONESPORT, Feb. 23— Joseph A. Wallace, 68, died at his home Sunday morning, having been in failing health for some time. He was born in Jonesport, the son of Freeman B. and Mary Jane Wallace and was a member of the Reformed Baptist church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eliza Wallace; four daughters, Mrs. Irving Dobbins of Popham Beach, Mrs. Cecil Walker of Island Falls, Mrs. Ralph French and Mrs. Ira Faulkingham of West Jonesport; three sons, William Wallace of West Jonesport, Edgar Wallace of Mt. Desert Rock light station, and Kenneth Wallace of Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Watt and Mrs. Lucy Tracy and a brother, James Wallace, all living here. There are 19 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were Tuesday afternoon in the Reformed Baptist church by Rev. Ernest Bradley and Rev. George Delong of St. John, N. B. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and many beautiful floral tributes. Two selections were sung; by Rev. George Delong, and by Mrs. Phyllis Beal and Mrs. Prebe Chandler. The bearers were Warren Norton, William R. Norton, Horace Norton and Neriah Norton. Interment was in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery.