

CORA EMMA WILSON

Born May 6, 1904. Classical Course. Class Secretary (3); School Play (4); Junior Reading (3); Honor Essay, Class Will, at Graduation.

Smiling? Yes, even in her picture. Cora always wears that adorable smile which indicates her sunny, happy disposition. If you hear someone carolling joyfully, "We had the swellest time!" you can be pretty sure that it is Cora describing one more of the good times that has come her way. Lastly she is noted for never having had one man but always a number of them. She is a stubborn child and no power can change her mind whether it is made up concerning the weather or clothes. Keep it up, Cora, we're all backing you
